Everything is fallin' down
Fall asleep
Down to the ground
Everything
Still like the snow Soft like a snow

buy a star
tonight i'm freezin'
wear some silk
and take me nowhere

everything
has fallen down here
feel the chill
hitting the ground
take some rest
you're born tonight
i'm born again

Tonight I wanna do some pretty things Like telling I love you Finding somebody to cure

This traffic wall of silence
Frightens me
I'm gonna kill my coma
Once again
